Mission Statement

The Foxton Centre is a Preston-based charitable organisation, working in the local community over a period of 50 years.

The Foxton Centre aims to work with the most marginalised communities in Preston and the North West of England to provide them with opportunities to flourish as human beings by:

- Being a resource of people, place and community, especially for those on the margins of society
- Actively working with individuals, groups and communities to promote social justice
- Helping people move beyond their limitations; to grow, learn and flourish.

We value

- Working with and welcoming marginalised people
- Creating better lives through challenging injustice and promoting social justice
- Not judging people
- Learning and stretching people's experiences so they can flourish
- Challenging inequalities and unfairness
- Creating a safe place
- Being person-centred
- Supporting health and wellbeing
- Offering flexibility, focus, responsiveness and specialisms
- Being the best we can be
- Doing what we can to help
- Practising compassionate professionalism
